High-Growth Expert Group formed for High-Growth Companies

Economy Creates Need to Transform Business

Infrastructures to Sustain Double-Digit Growth

ST. CHARLES, IL—September 1, 2020 – Greg Weismantel, a market leader in the area of successful Strategic Leadership Management has announced the formation of a new consulting group for high growth companies. The coming economy after Covid-19 is at the basis for the need. The new firm is called HGC High Growth Consulting, and is driven by the high growth economy which economists are saying could last many years into the future. The HGC Consulting Group will utilize the acronym “HGC” as its moniker.

Greg Weismantel, President/CEO of HGC, will head the group initially and has been at the forefront of assisting companies achieve high growth status for the past 35 years.

“This era of business is not only the one with the fastest growth cycle,” said Weismantel, “but is also when companies usually choke on their growth and remain non-players versus their competition. HGC will become the mentors of companies of current and future high growth, helping them transform their organizations from strictly operational units to strategic units utilizing agile management techniques of teamwork.

HGC will bring its High-Growth Learning Platform, which includes High Growth Leadership Management axioms and tenets of success.

HGC will begin in the Chicagoland area and move to other regions of the country, bringing current independent consultants into its organization of vertical channel experts.
